Major Earlier Change In Wheat Date!

October 12, 2021 – General Chodosh Cutoff Date Sheet

A major problem for us is that the Preliminary Guide announced an earlier wheat date. Instead of August 1st, it has been changed to July 30th, a full two days earlier! This means all of our wheat product entries updated between August 5-October 11th must be changed.

The General Chodosh Cutoff Date Sheet has now been updated with the General Mills and Post dates, as well as the new date for wheat. It has the updated date for when the Preliminary Guide came out. Here is the Direct Download Link:
