November 17, 2022 – Corrected Final Best By Date for General Mills Oat Cereals

It turns out that the packing date for General Mills oats from the USA is September 26, 2022. That means, in adding the 372 day shelf life time, the Best By cutoff date for General Mill's oat cereals would be October 3, 2023 (See our General Cutoff Date Sheet above), NOT October 11th as originally reported by us two days ago. All entries for General Mills Oat cereals have been updated on our website accordingly. We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused anyone due to this error.
