March 26, 2024 – The Yoshon.com Website is Now Completely Updated!

It is always a happy event to announce that Yoshon.com is completely updated for the season, aside from regular ongoing updates. As it had started being “Updated as of August 1, 2023”, we appreciate everyone’s patience, as it took us a lot longer this year doing the double-duty of creating the TYNI Product Manual completely from scratch.

Next chodosh season, the AKO plans to physically distribute copies of the TYNI Manual in various locations, to compensate for the loss of the Guide to Chodosh, which will be sorely missed by all.

B”H, we were able to get the whole infrastructure of the TYNI Manual together so that hopefully next year we will be a but quicker, when it will be needed. We hope that the new format is easy to read and is in a user-friendly format for both physical copies, and pdf downloads.

As the chodosh season starts to wind down, we will continue to update both the site and the Manual as needed, to make sure everyone is kept as current as possible. We have enjoyed serving the Yoshon-Keeping Public, and endeavor to keep making the mitzvah of Yoshon easy for everyone.
