GENERAL YOSHON NEWS

Chodesh Tov!

During the “off-season” while everything is yoshon, we at TYNI are still working behind the scenes on many aspects of the website and services. Although there may not be much going on news-wise in the world of yoshon, we will continue to keep everyone informed of any new developments.

During this time, we are updating the Yoshon.com website’s features, and more importantly during this time, we are also developing an updated version of the mobile app to make it accessible for the newer phones.

Due to rising costs of software, equipment, servers and many other technical elements, the app price will likely increase slightly. Rest assured that all those who have already bought the original app are automatically “grandfathered in”, and will not have to purchase the new version, as long as the same account is used.

In order to include app improvements, we invite you to participate in our survey on user-suggested features that will make the app even more useful.

Click on the link to go to access the survey: <https://yoshon.com/yapsurvey/>
