Chodosh Season Update

---

August 19, 2025 – Update from the Kashrut Agencies

"Below is the latest Yoshon season update:

Wheat:

Pasta products, durum and semolina flours - product of USA only - use Aug 1 as the production cutoff date. Canadian pasta products – no Chodosh concerns before September at least.

All Other Flours (all mills/companies), Fresh Baked Goods and All Other Wheat Products - No Chodosh concerns for at least the remainder of August. Next update around September 1st.

Barley & Oats – No Chodosh concerns for at least the remainder of August. Will update before September 1st.

Rye & Spelt – Can always be assumed Yoshon in N. America.

TYNI Note: Pasta products from the USA are already starting to be updated on Yoshon.com, and will be available on the app shortly. If you have scanned a UPC and only a number comes up but without a product picture, yet the brand is listed on our site, please report the product with its UPC number to us for inclusion to info@yoshonnetwork.org or send a picture to us via WhatsApp. Many companies have been changing the UPC numbers on their products, and we need this information to keep the app functioning in conjunction with our site.

Kol Tuv,

The TYNI Staff
